

Sinclair Broadcasting is failing to hold up their end of the bargain as gate-keepers of the publicly-owned air waves.

By airing a one-sided campaign ad for George Bush, they are abusing their position of power.

This is an outrage and they should lose their license.